TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 16.

A WORSHIPPER OF GOLD, -A few days ago a small functal porcession might have been seen elawly approximing the Catholic Cemetery near Warsaw. The coffin was lowered into the grave, and a few minutes later a yellow mound marked the spots where Wm. S. McQ rade by

For thirty years this wan, with few friends or conceellers, lived slone in poverty and filth at 253 West Sixth street. In his death is revas ed another metance of the horrible life of a miser. With $1,000 and over within his very hands, and decom for a couple of houses and lots, M.Quade continued his self chosen hermitage. A one story dingy frame, the front of which had been used for a store, a few doors east of Central avenue, hes been closed during the past week. Here it was McQuade lived, and a more miserable habitation c uid not be imagiced. The steach of the place, the foat air, laden with the fum sot moth and decay, still linger in the reporterial nestries. During the terrible not spell of so recent a date. Ma-Quade was stricken down. He was discovered served as the second the pole of fifth which served as the second remembers of his home. He when properly taken. It is moreheed the use of the master the properly taken. It is moreheed the use of the master the properly taken. It is moreheed the use of the master the properly taken. It is moreheed the use of the properly taken. It is not properly taken. It lying in espainte said the rite of fith which served as the accountsments of his home. He morrow McQ sade was dead, and though search after search has been made for the hid ien treasure he could not take with him, the efforts of those to unearth the secret have proved futile. In this monldy truck securely hidden become holdes of much easen clothes, was found $1 000. In a smoll disk in the store $50 more in sold and siver was discovered, wrapped is brown paper. The deeds for a house on Bonm street and one in Fulton were also found, a cluding the lease for the property compled at the time of his death, which embraces a number of houses on both Sixth and George streets. The floors have been ripped up in search of the money which he, in his will, lets to his sister, supp sed to live in Jersey City, but of whom to trace has PURE DRUGS and MEDICINES, CHEMIyet been found. One thousand dollars was his bequest to the orphans, and the sum found will be so appropriated - Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Long Speach -A member of the bar of one of the Eastern States was noted for possessing all the attributes of a good advocate but one-he never knew when to stop, indeed, it sometimes seemed as if he never would stop. On one occasion he had completely enhausted the patience of the court and jury and other counsels; still the stream of his elequance ran on as glibly as ever. At last he made a splendid peroration; every one experienced a feeling of relief, and every eye was surned towards him, expecting to see him take his seat. But at that moment to their as-tonishment and horror, he started off afresh on a new track. "Gentiamen of the jury," said he "astronomers tellus that there are more stars situated at a distance so remote from earth that their light, though it left them on the morsing of creation, and has been traveling ever since has never yet reached us." "Never mind brother T.," interposed the opposing counsel, "it will be sure to get here before you have done."
